

The Killing of MR TOAD

The Killing of MR TOAD

The extraordinary story behind The Wind in the Willows

Written and Directed by David Gooderson

Written and Directed by David Gooderson

Sundays and Mondays

19, 20, 26, 27 April 3, 4 May 2009

"This is an S.O.S. I can't wait till half term. Please take me away from this school. Now!"

This rich and unusual play begins as a musical celebration of The Wind in the Willows, but becomes a hard-hitting story of a dysfunctional family, unrealistic parental ambitions and teenage breakdown – as the author who delighted so many children is unable to save his own son.

"A sad delight... I enjoyed every minute of it."
Robert Hewison, The Sunday Times

"Excellent" Alan Bennett, Writing Home

Cast includes
Stefan Bednarczyk
Leo Conville
Elizabeth Counsell
Timothy Davies
Jeffrey Perry

finboroughtheatre

BOOKING INFORMATION

ONLINE BOOKING
www.finboroughtheatre.co.uk
Save money on all full-price tickets booked online. No booking fees.

TELEPHONE BOOKING
0844 847 1652
(24 hours) No booking fees.

IN PERSON
The Box Office opens 30 minutes before each performance.

TICKET PRICES
£13, £9 concessions

DURATION
Approx 2 hours

PERFORMANCE TIMES
Sundays and Mondays at 7.30pm
19, 20, 26, 27 April
3, 4 May 2009

LOCATION AND TRANSPORT
Earl's Court or West Brompton (District and Piccadilly lines)
West Brompton

Buses 11, 14, 22, 74, 190, 328, C1, C3

There is limited on-street parking in surrounding streets. The Finborough Theatre is outside of the congestions zone.

The Finborough Theatre is above The Finborough Road Brasserie, 118 Finborough Road, London SW10 9ED.